17-year old Michael finds himself caught up in his brother's world of drug dealing. On the lookout for fast money, and wanting to raise his status, Michael and his friend are arrested with firearms. Both make a decision that will change their lives forever.

Created and performed by a team of young lyricists, dancers, writers, singers and actors

The show runs for an hour and a half. There is no interval.
Saturday evening finishes at 10pm as there are guest performances after the play.
